BiliNV Crack + (LifeTime) Activation Code For PC

You cannot handle all the tasks related to your company by yourself. Apart from invoices, you need to deal with various paperwork that are essential for your business. If you are not able to handle them yourself, you will have to hire someone who can do it. Even though it may not be ideal, some of your employees may prefer taking on these tasks. However, they may be reluctant because they are busy with their own job. In any case, you need to take the initiative to delegate these tasks to your employees so they can focus on their own jobs and the work at hand. Invoice Reminder helps you stay on top of your invoicing paperwork. With it, you can create and manage your invoices in a smart and organized manner. Invoice Reminder Features: 1. List all your outstanding invoices in a single, friendly interface. 2. Receive reminders when the due date for an invoice is about to expire. 3. Assign the work to any of your employees. 4. Compile a list of invoices for easy reference. 5. Use any of the 25 predefined templates. Invoice Reminder Screenshots: As a small business owner, you can imagine how hard it can be to keep up with all the tasks related to your company. You may be responsible for different areas, and you may not have a designated time to spend on each of these tasks. Sometimes you may also be too tired to get them done. In these situations, there are many chores that must get done, and you need a tool to help you out. TaskTracker is an application that you can use to get all the things done that need your attention. BiliNV

BiliNV is a small application that addresses small and medium-sized companies looking for a simple way to create, manage and print invoices that you can hand or mail to your clients later on. Enables you to customize the invoice with a logo The setup is quick, uneventful and does not require any special attention on your part. Upon launch, you are welcomed by the Settings window, so you can take the opportunity to fill in the information related to your company. Therefore, you can add the name, address, city, state, zip code, phone, fax and your email address. You will be happy to learn that the program enables you to include a picture with your logo. Even though it is not visible when you preview the document and may look slightly out of place in the Settings window, it shows full size on the invoice. Create and keep track of paid and overdue invoice The application comes with a clean and minimalistic interface that is unlikely to give you any troubles. In fact, the main window is designed to list all the invoices that you issued or created as a table that includes data such as the name of the customer, number of the bill, the amount paid, remaining amount, status along with the issued and due dates. Despite the fact that it comes with a minimalistic filter system, it is worth mentioning that you can filter out paid and overdue invoice. Moreover, you can select the view solely the bills that are issued during a given interval, an option that can lend you a hand with accounting for instance. Then again, the program is lacking a function for getting reports and that is a must have for the apps in this category. A straightforward invoicing tool for small and medium businesses All in all, BiliNV is an easy-to-use application that makes creating invoices for printing or mailing to your customers a simple and forthright process.
