Hi, my name is SK* and I am the owner of this site! I am really pissed at you for putting VST Crack on your site! I mean, what did you expect me to do? It's like suing your parents for giving you fries and a shake! I just knew that someday I would have a chance to destroy your little server of crap and fix it with fresh, sweet Crack! I just had to make this server public, and bam, you're here! It's really convenient for me and I just wanted to let you know that you are now to be the target of my very next virus attack, because you own a virus on my server. I know how to handle virus attacks - it's just a matter of time. Actually, I just wanted to thank you for not deleting my file(s) on your server. You are keeping my site clean, and that's why I want to thank you. I'll make sure to put my virus on your site - you know, so your site will never be clean again. That's how a web server works - I have many sites and I do my best to make them one, clean site. That's why I was polite about what I did to this little site that you created - I don't want to hurt you, your family, or your friends. I just wanted to give you and your family a heads up that your server is going to be destroyed by my virus, which I am just finishing and will make sure to let the rest of the world know about you. All the sites that are looking for my virus will come here, and I will make sure to make that happen. -BRRR... If you appreciate my site, just do me a favor - delete this (VST Crack) from your site and send to me in the comments below for
