In this game mode you play as an on-site forensics expert, working for a casino, tasked to save your client. You have to track the location of a missing security guard and protect him from the bad guy gang. If you want to protect the last remaining safe in their casino, the security guard is expected to lose his life immediately after the police investigation is over. But not this time. You have to find the little fry first, and all jobs count! Utilize your functional knowledge and bring the players to safety. In this game mode you have to protect the government from nuclear attacks. You have to protect the presidents who are staying in the presidential bunkers. Play the last "good" president again or retire? You also play a conspiracy role for your current president, you have to control some suspects, gather information and make them to disappear. Because everyone has a back from you, this should not be the last game mode for you! You control a sniper, hiding in a tactical box. You have to choose targets, engage and kill them! Find your way to the status updates on your helmet-type display. Make sure that you stay in the shield, because it is fully protected like every player in the video game. There are multiple characters to play as in the video game. The game supports Oculus Rift supported for now, but also every HMD can be used, no matter if the PC is virtual or not. The predecessors of the M4, the MP5 and the AK showed the way to the lightness, smoothness and freedom of movement. The new series focuses on the advantages of today's technology. The weapon will be used in VR as well as in the conventional OSVR supported mode. The game will run with both methods at the same time. The release of ty: An ER ExperienceBy MrGilbertOnRPG:There have been numerous questions about Fate/EXTRA CCC, but none really show exactly what it is, so I figured I'd put it down in writing: Note: The other Fate/EXTELLA anime came first. But this, the direct sequel to the original Fate/stay night, failed. I didn't like it the first time, and I didn't like it any better the second time around. Fate/stay night was a psychotic masterpiece and EXTELLA was a sickening parody. I'm willing to give EXTELLA another chance, but only if it doesn't resemble the original much like what happened with F/NE. The whole "rape" point of the entire show is just fucking lol. As usual, it's a direct sequel, so there will most likely be spoilers. ----- Disclaimer: I'm using the Koreiusaki localization of Fate/EXTRA CCC. So none of this would apply to the anime if it ever exists. At the time of this writing, Fate/EXTRA CCC isn't complete. There's barely any media, and the only official release was a 10-minute preview on T.V. This is made very evident by the fact that there are many, many spoilers in this writing. I might not spoil anything that happens in the anime, but there's not much else I can really say without spoiling anything. ----- I want this to be direct. So most of this will likely not make sense to those who haven't seen any of the other Fate/series. So, what exactly is EXTELLA? EXTELLA, of course, is a portmanteau. No one got that? The last part is an onomatopoeia of climax, where you make the words "ex" and "ella" by sticking an "e" in front of "X". Check it out: ExeLLa X (of climax) EX Lloyd IN Lloyd (who is a Lloyd Collapse, of course) So Lloy DID EXteLLII (oh, snap!) EX ike Lloyd IN ike Lloyd (whose theme is lost in the PA) And Lloyd Collapse, put your axes in the glass. So what does EXTELLA, in

- Unlock Different Parts in Staggered Time - Good battle AI - Great Controls - Lots of Characters (More added with Updates) This is a highly requested game and is being funded because of how well it is doing. It has been on the Top Sellers for over 7 months now and is currently the 2nd most popular game on the group. I just want to give some quick updates: - New unlockable Characters (3 of which are in development) - New rooms & Bosses (2 of which are in development) - Several Updates (UI, Character Labels, Enemies, etc) - Weekly Updates with New Features and Gameplay - Local Multiplayer Campaign - Controller support - High Resolution Graphics This is the only game on the list so far that is being fully developed by an independent dev (Isogami Labs) and the only one that isn't on kickstarter. The Staggered Timeline concept is an original concept that I've been working on with cooperation and without knowledge of the decisions taken by the developers of other games on kickstarter. My motive of putting in the time into developing this game is not to collect fanboy points, but instead to put a fun game out there into the wild with a fun story, so hopefully, it makes people think of the hard work that goes into every project. I just wanted to share that with you guys. The following is a link to what is going on in the game at the moment: That's my first request for you. If you are reading this and have any ideas of how to make this game better, please leave a comment or email me. This would be the only way I can hear feedback on what you would like to see.
