A time machine, it can also travel through time and space, which is why it is known as a time machine. Although TARDIS looks like a cube, it actually looks like a time device. TARDIS was originally designed by the Doctor's great-grandfather, William Hartnell. It was created by a time traveller called The TimeLord (Doctor) and has been travelling around the world, meeting many different people in the past and today. . You must be logged in to vote.
