----- [T]He [E]lden [R]ing was founded in Valour, a great city in the Lands Between. A holy city that holds the Vestiges of Valour deeply within it. A young boy named Dromin once lived in Valour. He promised to create a game that would "make the Lands Between come alive". At first, he tried to do this by making his game around a fantasy and a myth. But when his game was made into a public release, he had no intention of supporting the game, and his company that produced the game disappeared. The game was no longer promoted at all. The game was forgotten, and people who liked the game were forced to make their own games. This is the story of that young boy Dromin.
----- [T]He [E]lden [R]ing is free-to-play. [T]he player [E]njoys the game only when they decide to. [T]hey can buy magat-powers from the shop to enhance their character. The universe in the crystal realm of the world of "nothing," beyond the veil between worlds has existed since the beginning of time. It was at the time when the illusion of the world of "nothing" came from the realm of the light that the world of the living started.

That world turned turbulent, and a mighty power sent powerless shanties to the beginning of the world of the living with greed for resources to live.

Nadera is a plane that exists outside of the hollows, where there is absolute peace.

However, when the entire world was surrounded by darkness, it tried to find a way to investigate the world. They set off until the beginning of the world of the living.

They found the old & ancient civilization that had vanished for thousands of years. There were no legends that could describe the civilization, but it was a fact that the country was far advanced compared to present-day technology. The people took a form of long-distance examining, and then they put their entire country into statistics. All countries put all the data they collected. To find out what happened to them, they set up a surveillance network.

Subsequently, it was discovered that some people that were living in the cities explored outside were watching the country, and it transformed the country into a total surveillance state.

However, the idealist government became the government of Nadera that located

Prenez note que cet article publié en 2018 pourrait contenir des informations qui ne sont plus à jour. Radio-Canada a appris que le nouveau Centre Vidéotron, qui vient d'être inauguré, est à vendre dans les prochaines années. Le géant des télécoms AMÉRA propose d'éviter un démantèlement en l'échangeant contre une ou plusieurs autres stations radiophoniques ou de télévision. La coentreprise est dirigée par la famille de Jean-Martin Aussant, l'ancien patron du collège FrancoFolies. Le CIUSSS de la Capitale-Nationale a été informé de l'éventualité d'une vente du nouveau centre pour une somme évaluée à environ 200 millions de dollars. Le CIUSSS a lui-même accepté de faire saisir un « emprunt » de 15 %, à compter d'aujourd'hui, pour assurer l'amortissement du centre parc réseau de l'île-de-la-Soie, vers lequel le CIUSSS s'est également joint. Un « emprunt » de 15 % À ceux qui ont visité le nouveau Centre Vidéotron, on a expliqué qu'il fallait un « emprunt » de 15 % car le Centre Vidéotron possède quatre bâtiments qui seront perdants de son côté. Le nouveau Centre Vidéotron était bien présent pour la fête du Canada, mais il y a un peu de retard. Dans les prochaines semaines, il va être là. Jean-François Carrier, maire de l'île-de-la-Soie « Il va falloir attendre. Le fait qu'on n'ait pas de nouvel emprunt, qu'on doive attendre, ça ne change rien au fait qu
